MEN WHO HELPED MAKE PORTSMOUTH

Brief Sketches of Their Lives, Which Should Be An Inspiration to All; Opportunities in Portsmouth for the Hard-working, Conscientious Young Man Just As Good As Anywhere Else in The World

Pen sketches by Harry Palmer, from photo by Harris' studio.

"Building Portsmouth" is not a theoretical term with James S. Thomas, Judge of the Common Pleas Court of Scioto County, for he has laid out nine new additions to the city and its environs.

James Sheridan Thomas was born near Peebles, Ohio, May 31, 1870, and received his early education there. For several years he taught school before taking up the study of law, at one time serving as principal of the Sciotoville schools. Judge Thomas received his degree of Bachelor of Science at the National Normal University and his Bachelor of Laws degree from the Cincinnati law school. Coming to Portsmouth after his graduation from the law school and his admission to the bar in 1895 he began the practice of law in the office of the late N. W. Evans, at a salary of $5.00 per week. After two years in the office of Capt. Evans, Mr. Thomas opened an office of his own. In 1897 he was elected city solicitor and in 1912 he was elected to his present position on the bench of the Court of Common Pleas. Judge Thomas is a member of the Elks, the Eagles, Modern Woodmen of America and Knights of Pythias.

In 1900 Judge Thomas was married to Miss Bertha LeFevre.

Since coming to Portsmouth, as a sort of diversion, Judge Thomas has interested himself in plating lands and building houses. In 1912 he drove up what was then known as Brewery Hollow, a narrow unpaved way that was little better than a ditch. Today that addition is the site of many of the loveliest homes in Portsmouth, and more are in the process of construction.

As to his belief in Portsmouth Judge Thomas says, "In many respects Portsmouth is the best town I know of. Her industries are so varied that she has been well able to survive during business depressions. Through the example of such men as the Hon. A. T. Holcomb and the late Harry S. Grimes, Portsmouth citizens have grown up in an atmosphere of civic pride and with courage to overcome all obstacles. As to my ideas of business ethics, I believe in selling at such prices that the other fellow can make a profit, if he wants to sell. This has been my policy in building and disposing of three or four hundred houses. In my judgment this is the only way of taking care of the 'housing conditions'."

Hiram Johnson's Supporters Feel More Confident of Victory As Nation's Oil Scandal Progresses

(BY DAVID LAWRENCE)
(Copyright, 1924)

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Senator Hiram Johnson's financial supporters have not abandoned him nor do they intend to do so. The published reports of a withdrawal of financial aid for the primary campaign in New York State are a misconception of a decision made several months ago when the Johnson campaign was planned.

Certain sums were allocated for each state, but it was decided not to make an extensive canvass in New York because the Senator relies there upon his own strength with the voters and his power of personal appeal with the masses as well as the aid of certain newspapers.

Mr. Johnson's friends feel that his chances are getting better daily, that the next campaign will be won in the West, and that the Tenor Dome contest has so involved President Coolidge with the responsibility of retaining officers in his Cabinet until forced to dismiss them that the public will want a new slate. The Johnson campaign is based on the issue of clean government as expounded by the California Senator. He favors a soldier bonus, tax reduction and what he terms a progressive program.

The Coolidge forces have by no means ignored the Johnson movement and, while confident of success, would nevertheless feel better if the California issue were out of the way. To checkmate Johnson there is a plan afoot to reduce his prestige nationally if possible by a contest in the California primaries, the theory being that if Johnson could be deprived of the Republican endorsement in his home state he would not have any strength to speak of elsewhere.

Governor E. W. Richardson, of California, who is said to cherish ambitions for the Vice Presidential nomination is the only man who ever polled more votes in California than Johnson. First it was thought he would head the list of Coolidge electors in California, but at the eleventh hour this plan was abandoned because Mr. Richardson has five years to serve on the Appellate Court bench.

Judge Farr May Run for Governor

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Judge Louis T. Farr, of the Ohio Appellate Court now in session here, said yesterday that he may become a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. The Litcher jurist said that his friends are urging him to run.

"I truly appreciate the interests of my friends," Judge Farr said. "A Columbus paper recently had an article saying I would be available, and since then word has passed around the state."

"I am seriously considering it and if I decide to run I would work diligently to give the best administration I am capable of."

Judge Farr has five years to serve on the Appellate Court bench.

American Marines Shot In Honduras

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—(By the United Press)—Several American marines have been wounded in Honduras and more than 500 square blocks of the city of Zela are in ruins, according to unconfirmed report received by the navy department here today. Burning of Zela is said to be last move of government troops before abandoning the city.

VIOLENT QUAKES ROCK COSTA RICA

NEW YORK, March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Earthquakes shook Port Limon and San Jose, Costa Rica, early today, said a message received here by the All-America Cables. The first quake occurred at about 5 a. m., and was followed by others.

SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA, March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—A series of earth shocks, the strongest felt here in twenty-five years, beginning at four o'clock this morning, damaged fully half the buildings of San Jose and caused a number of casualties.

A part of the American Legation building collapsed but the American minister and his family and the consul and his family escaped uninjured. No injuries to any American residents have been reported.

Communication with neighboring cities is entirely cut off.

SAN JUAN DEL SUR, NICARAGUA, March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Three distinct earth shocks were felt here shortly after 5:15 o'clock this morning, New York time. No damage has been reported.

300 BURN TO DEATH; 700 HURT IN CHINA

TSING TAO, CHINA, March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Three hundred persons were burned to death, suffocated or died in panic as a result of a fire which swept the important town of Chowtsun, forty miles east of Tsinan, Shantung Province, last Friday. Seven hundred others were injured.

J. P. Morgan Says Financial Outlook of Country Is Good

NEW YORK, March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—J. P. Morgan, who leaves today on the Lapland for a two months' holiday abroad, said he considered the financial and business outlook of the country so favorable that he could see no necessity for the issuance of a reassuring statement by himself.

He was going abroad to "play," he said; to have a good time, and insisted that there was no business significance to the trip. At Naples, he said, he would board his yacht Corsair, with members of his family, but no business associates, and indulge in a lazy cruise of the Mediterranean, sailing as far east as Egypt.

He said he would take part in no negotiations or German loan conferences.

Furniture Dealers In Session
COLUMBUS, O., March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Ohio furniture dealers were gathering today for the opening late today of the annual convention of the Ohio Retail Furniture Dealers' Association. The sessions will last through Thursday.

Wealthy Publisher and Bride Forced to Give Up Engagement

NEW YORK, March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Eugene V. Brewster, wealthy magazine publisher, said today that he and Miss Corliss Palmer, young and beautiful, had given up all hope of marriage and that Miss Palmer would leave for an unnamed city to engage in business under an assumed name.

Brewster placed the blame for his wrecked romance on his second wife, who it is said, refused to divorce him. Also, he said, he had failed to divorce her after repeated attempts.

Brewster had planned to install Miss Palmer in a $250,000 home he has just completed at Morristown, N. J.

"Circumstances require that Miss Palmer leave New York City and alter her life sufficiently to conform to conditions which we have found impossible to change," he said. "Our friendship has been dragged forth and exhibited to a morbid and misunderstanding public often enough. I do not propose that she shall be subjected to any more of that sort of thing."

The girl told the board that Principal C. T. Rice had reported the kissing incident after she told him of it in confidence. Damon said he would file charges against Rice.

Now It's Ship Board They're To Investigate

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—A sweeping investigation of the shipping board was authorized today by the house. After brief debate a resolution was adopted providing for appointment of a special committee to conduct the inquiry.

Four Republicans and three Democrats, to be designated by Speaker Gillette, will serve on the committee. The inquiry was proposed by Representative Davis, of Tennessee, a Democrat.

Burns Says Message Sent In Effort to Have McLean Resign As Justice Department Agent

WASHINGTON, March 4.—There was another series of bomb explosions today in the oil scandal.

Here are some of the things the oil committee was told when it resumed its hearings:

That E. L. Doheny tried unsuccessfully last December to interest Senator Thomas J. Walsh, chief of the prosecution of the oil inquiry, in an oil venture in Montana.

That the senator replied he would have nothing to do with an enterprise where he might appear to be using his official position for his own profit.

That Edward J. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post, and a central figure in the oil scandal, has been carried on the government rolls as a secret agent of the Department of Justice.

That McLean had a copy of the Department of Justice secret code and that some of the messages to him in Florida were in a cipher code used by the department.

That the famous "Mary" message was sent to Florida in an effort to suggest that he should resign in order not to embarrass Attorney General Daugherty.

Francis H. McAdoo, son of W. G. McAdoo, told the committee that McLean had telegraphed him that A. Mitchell Palmer, who was attorney general under Wilson, was acting as attorney for Albert B. Fall and Harry F. Sinclair. Mr. Palmer already has denied any such connection.

The testimony regarding McLean was given by W. J. Burns, chief of the department's secret agents, and Mrs. Duckstein, formerly Burns' secretary. They both confirmed the publisher had been enrolled on the force of the bureau of investigation.

Burns said that McLean was appointed before he became director of the Bureau of Investigation but added that he "must have been appointed in this administration."

McLean was placed on the roll as a special agent because the department obtained information through him and his newspaper, The Washington Post, Burns testified. His salary was $1 a year.

Burns said there were about eight dollar a year men in the department now.

"The last administration had 'chick' the witness added.

"The witness said that Gaston B. Munn as a special agent of the Department of Justice may have through him, done some work for President Harding.

"No, he hasn't resigned," Burns said when asked if McLean had given up his post as special agent.

Mrs. Duckstein said that the famous "Mary" code she sent to Florida was intended to convey the information that McLean's connection with the department was under investigation. She said it had no connection with oil.

Burns told that Mr. Duckstein said that McLean might wish to resign if he thought his position would embarrass Attorney General Daugherty.

When Mr. Burns took the stand he was asked by Committee members why he had not sent the message to McLean.

"I have no right to ask Mr. McLean to resign," he replied.

The evidence regarding Doheny's overtures to Senator Walsh was in an exchange of letters and telegrams put into the record by the senator himself. He said he submitted them because word of the correspondence had been whispered in an effort to discredit him and the oil committee.

Doheny's suggestion that the senator or his brother "take interest" in the Montana project was made before he revealed that he had loaned $100,000 to A. B. Fall but long after the Senate inquiry into the Doheny and Sinclair contracts had begun.

In reading the messages into the record Senator Walsh said efforts had been made to "discover something that might be urged feloniously or otherwise against me."

"That and would be served," he said, "if it could be whispered about that there had been an exchange of telegrams between Doheny and myself."

Senator Walsh said the purpose of the negotiation apparently was to hamper the work of the oil committee.

Telegrams put into the record of the oil committee today showed that after Walsh had forwarded to Doheny a suggestion from a constituent as to development of the Montana oil field Doheny suggested that Walsh or his brother go to Los Angeles and consult about it.

Doheny based his suggestion on a proviso that the Montana senator or his brother was willing to take "interest" in the proposition.

Senator Walsh replied that the suggestion was "most alluring" but said he could not accept because leasing negotiations with the government would be necessary.

"While I am in the official position I hold," said Walsh's reply. "It seems to me unwise for me to engage in any business dependent in any appreciable degree on government favor."

Walsh Refused To Enter Oil Transactions With Doheny

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, chief prosecutor in the oil inquiry, refused in December to enter into an oil transaction with E. L. Doheny.

It might be "squeamishness on my part," Senator Walsh told Doheny, but he could not appear to use his official position for profit.

HOW TAX MONEY IS DISTRIBUTED

Auditor Roy H. Cohen has completed distribution of money derived from taxes collected by Treasurer Henry B. Ruel at the December collection. The report shows that the treasurer received a duplicate of taxes in 1923 amounting in the whole to $1,930,264.83, of which $876,001.59 was collected. The report further shows that in the February settlement the tax money was distributed to the students and county and various taxing districts in the following proportion:

State—$13,357.80.
County—$249,171.02.
Townships—$55,078.51.
Local School Districts—$271,913.16.
Exempted Villages—$84,189.60.
Other Than Exempted Villages—$80,703.83.
City and Village Tax—$189,612.20.
Municipal Special Assessments—$2,571.34.

The county's share of the money has been apportioned to the various funds in this manner: County fund, $13,357.80; poor, $6,500.13; children's home, $6,500.13; bridge, $17,334.05; debt, $56,334.45; electric, $7,306.82; road, $33,307.33; turnpike "A", $65,001.20; blind relief, $1,733.37; judicial, $5,200.10; mother's pension, $1,733.37; district tuberculosis hospital, $2,900.05; and agricultural society, $506.68.

Government Research Bureau Being Formed

NEW YORK, March 4.—(By the A. P.)—Organization of the Citizens' Federal Research Bureau, proposed by Frank A. Vanderlip in an address yesterday, already has begun and "is progressing rapidly," the retired banker announced today.

The bureau will conduct a "thorough scientific investigation of the federal government, without malice and without fear," Mr. Vanderlip declared. A number of "very important persons" have already offered to act as trustees, he said.

"A large organization is going to be formed," Mr. Vanderlip announced. "We will employ distinguished lawyers, expert investigators and good newspapermen. In fact we have already employed them."

With regard to a report that he might be called to Washington to substantiate his declaration that President Coolidge had asked for Attorney General Daugherty's resignation, the former banker would only say: "I will stand by my statement."

Mr. Vanderlip would not give the names of those who had volunteered as trustees of the new bureau, nor of those whom he said had been employed.

No Opposition To Bonus Voiced As Committee Considers Plans

WASHINGTON, March 4.—(By the
A. P.)—The form of payment of a soldier's bonus occupied the attention of spokesmen before the house ways and means committee today at the opening of a three day session of public hearings.

Several propositions, including a plan to limit the bonus entirely to paid up insurance policies for all veterans who served more than three years, were presented to the committee by members of the house who have introduced bills.
The American Legion, through John Thomas Taylor, vice chairman of its national legislative committee, declared a willingness to accept "whatever bonus legislation this congress enacts."

No Opposition Voiced
Not a word of opposition either by committee members or those appearing before it was expressed against bonus legislation, most of the speakers devoting their time to outlining various proposed methods of bonus payments.

When Representative Garner of Texas, ranking Democrat on the committee who voted against the bonus bill last session, suggested he might favor a bill providing options for service men, cash payment or insurance, Chairman Green warned "that such legislation might throw a monkey wrench into the whole proposition." Mr. Green insisted the full cash payments option could not be placed in the bill, contending that the revenue required would eat up all government revenue collected for a year.

OVER $123,000,000 REFUNDED TO INCOME TAXPAYERS IN YEAR

WASHINGTON, March 4.—(By the
A. P.)—Refunds on tax payments totalling $123,002,920.94 were made by the treasury in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923, according to a report sent to the house ways and means committee by the department.

The refunds, which were made to 203,320 persons, covered payments for several years and were made on account of "illegal or erroneously collected taxes."

The report showed 10,152 persons had received more than $1,000 in reimbursements.

Among those receiving refunds were:
Edward L. Doherty, Los Angeles, $49,
000.04; Charles R. Crane, New York, $172,206.06; Cornelius Vandewater, New York, $57,971.00; Oliver Harriman,
New York, $22,537.70; Joseph W. Harrington, New York, $30,358.00; Payne Whitney, Lewis Cass, Maryland, and Lewis Ledyard Jr., executors of the estate of Oliver H. Payne, New York, $9,368,548.66; Nellie H. Miller Nickel, San Francisco, Cal., $9,309,064.75; and John Hayes Hammond, Washington, D.
C., $8,139.12; John N. Willey, New York City, $1,391,947.04; John S. Willis, Toledo, Ohio; $120,433.65.

OLDEST VETERAN DIES

LORAIN, O., March 4.—Joseph Jewett, 97, oldest member of the Latin post of the G. A. R., died here today.
He was one of the seven to return with the Eighth Ohio Volunteer Infantry at the end of the Civil War.

BADLY RUN-DOWN FROM PNEUMONIA

Mrs. Washburn quickly regained her strength and flesh.

"I had gripped, followed by pneumonia. It left me with a terrible weakness in my chest, constant pain in my throat and so weak and nervous I could not get out nor sleep. I had a chill every morning."

"One day a young man told me how Milks Emulsion had got him out of bed and built him up after he had been reduced to a skeleton and given up by the doctors. So I tried it. I have gained in strength, appetite and flesh, sleep better than I have for years, am doing all my own work again and feel like a new person."

"The beauty about Milks Emulsion is that it doesn't wear out like most things, and is so pleasant to take. It is a food as well as a medicine and builds up the blood and tissues. It surely put new blood in my veins and I have the healthiest color I ever had."

It costs nothing to try Milks Emulsion. It will build you up more quickly, more surely than anything else.

Milks Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action. It is a truly corrective medicine, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food, and thus builds flesh and strength. Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened it;
it is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.
Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved.

It is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded.
Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind.
Sold by druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

Don't Leave Film On your pretty teeth

See how this new way
combats it
Your teeth are coated with a vis-cous film. You can feel it now.
Even when you brush teeth, much of it clings and stays.
That is your teeth' great enemy.
That is what mars their beauty,
that is what destroys them.
Let this free test show you how millions now combat it.

That cloudy coat Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings and stays, because old-way brushing cannot effectively combat it.

Soon it becomes discolored, then forms dingy coats. Teeth by the millions thus become unsightly.
Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.
No one can hope to escape such troubles without fighting film.

Now there are ways to do that, due to modern research. One way disintegrates the film at all stages of formation. One removes it without harmful scouring.

Dental authorities have proved Protect the Enamel Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel.
Never use a film combant which contains harsh grit.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—Would you please tell me, as soon as possible, whether the United Fruit Growers are still sending men to South America to work on their plantations or not? How can I get in touch with them? I mean, where can I address a letter so they will get it? Who can I write to find out if I can get a position on a South American railroad?

—N. and W. MACHINIST.

You can get this information by writing to the Passenger Department of the United Fruit Company, Room 1611, Seventeen Battery Place, New York City, or to their general office, 131 State street, Boston, Mass.

Dear Dolly—Will you write me a few lines as I am in love with a boy, and he loves another girl. He says he loves me, but I think he loves her the best. Can you please give me some advice about this business, as I am anxious to know? And also please give me a recipe how to make chocolate cake.

—ONESOMB GIRL.

Since the way to win a man's heart is through his stomach, you are starting out all right by making him a big chocolate cake that will melt in his mouth. If you have good luck with the cake, half your battle is won. If not, I suppose your rival will get him. Here's hoping that your oven and baking powder won't go back on you, and send your recipe—now do your best one and one half cups of sugar, two thirds cup of sweet milk, one-half cup of butter, whites of three eggs, two teaspoons of baking powder. Take one third of the dough and add one bar chocolate. Bake in layers.

Chocolate Filling—One-half cup of sugar, half cup of water, a little butter, one bar of chocolate. Boil until it strings, add white of one egg, beaten light, then heat until almost cold and spread on cake. If this doesn't bring him to time, I think he is hopeless.

Dear Dolly—I am a sophomore in high school and I want to know if you think it would be all right for me to play basketball. My parents are not in favor of my playing as they say it is injurious to one's health to play a strenuous game. I am 16 years of age. Do you think it would harm me to play?

—WANT TO KNOW.

Whether or not such exercise would be harmful, depends on your physical condition. If possible, you might have either a physical director or a physician examine you and if you are strong enough to stand any kind of exercise, playing basketball should not hurt you if it is not played to excess.

Dear Dolly—Do you know what will take the shine off the back of a perfectly good blue serge skirt?

—BUSINESS WOMAN.

In ordinary cases spotting with ammonia water will remedy this condition. Use a tablespoon of ammonia to a quart of tepid water, then press until the cloth is almost dry. The nap may be brushed up with a stiff brush, or in extreme cases with fine sandpaper. Rubbing water is also recommended for spotting shiny skirts. If you will use a cushion of a felt mat on your chair, you won't be troubled with shiny skirts. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, you know.

Dear Dolly—I would like to know how to make combination sandwiches.

—TIMES READER.

Two slices of whole wheat bread, two slices of cold boiled ham, two slices of Swiss cheese, butter. Butter the bread, and on one slice lay the slices of cold ham; then lay on the cheese; then the other slice of bread and press down firmly. Cut across diagonally and serve.

JACKSON, OHIO—Dear Dolly. Please print a recipe for jam cake and butterscotch pie.

—HUNGRY APPETITE.

Blackberry Jam Cake—Two cups of sugar, six eggs, one cup of butter, creamed together, three cups of blackberry jam, one-half cup of sour milk, three cups of flour, two tablespoons of soda, two teaspoons of allspice, two teaspoons of cinnamon, two teaspoons of nutmeg, one handful of raisins. Beat the eggs separately. Add kind of jam will do. There was recipe for butterscotch in this column a few evenings ago.

SOCIAL NEWS

Tomorrow, Ash Wednesday, sees the advent of the Lenten season and consequently a general slackening in social events for the next six weeks. There are several affairs planned, but they will be most informal, and their simplicity will be in keeping with the season which has been designated as the season of penance. However, church organizations and clubs will be active in preparation for Easter, but there will be a noticeable lack of the social sessions which usually are part of these meetings.

One of the delightful and charming events of recent date was that given by Mrs. Frank Fleming of Sixth street when she entertained the members of the Volquemen Club in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. Included in the informal diversions of the evening was a series of Five Hundred games at the close of which prizes for high score were awarded to Mrs. Paul Stockham, Mrs. George Saxby, Messrs. Murray Chilton and Richard Baughman.

At a late hour the guests were invited into the dining-room, where they were served with a beautifully appointed three course lunch. The table was attractively arranged with spring flowers and greenery and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baughman, Mr. and Mrs. George Saxby, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Chilton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stockham, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Grubb and Miss Emma Schneider.

Mr. Fleming was presented with a handsome gift from the club members.

Mrs. Roy McElhenny of Huntington, W. Va., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Lorey of Robinson avenue.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

THE TWINS MEET A FIDDLER

"What's this thing?" said Nancy curiously.

Along came a fiddler on his way to the fair. A jolly fiddler was he, but oh, he was as big as a lighthouse, and his fiddle was as big as a boat.

He played as he went and his big bow scraped the strings at a furious rate. The sun was hot and the road of Roundabout Land was dusty, and the jolly fiddler got very thirsty.

"I'll just have my good fiddle under a tree," he said, and hunk a spring of nice, clear water. Then I can cut my slice of bread and cheese and take a short nap. I'll play all the better for it when I reach the fair."

So he laid down his fiddle and went off into the woods to hunt a spring, but no spring had he gone, than along came Nance and Nick as happy as two little birds just out of a cage.

"What's this thing?" said Nancy curiously, as she spied the fiddle.

"The two of them walked all around it and finally came up on top and looked down at it.

"I know," declared Nick. "It's a fiddle, and one of the Roundabout Giants has left it here. It's that he touched one of the strings. Zing! It went with a shingling noise, but although it was only a little noise for a giant, it was a great big noise for Nance and Nick."

"Let's play a tune!" cried Nancy. "You pull one string and I'll pull another and see if we can't make some music."

So they began, and although it wasn't much music there was a great deal of sound.

Suddenly the fiddler, who was at that minute taking a drink out of a

Jack Daw's Adventures — THE FRIENDLY HERMIT

BY ELTON

Jack was startled as the old hermit broke into laughter. "What's the matter?" he asked. "Matter enough!" laughed the hermit. "Just look at your dog!" And Jack turned and saw Flip licking one of his paws. A fish lay on the ground beside him. "That's what he gets for trying to steal."

The faithful dog was hungry, too, and he didn't know that there were huns waiting for him when he tried to take one of the fish from the pan. Fortunately Flip let go of the fish before his paw was badly hurt. But it taught him a lesson, Jack then gave him a cooler piece of fish.

As the breakfast was finished the old hermit pulled up his pipe and started to smoke. "Did you ever do any whittling?" he asked Jack. "Oh, a little," replied the adventurer. "Well," said the hermit, "I'll make you a boat that will sail." And he pulled out a big knife. (Continued.)

BEGIN HERE TODAY
Colonel Holmes, soldier and adventurer, returns to England, his native land, when war with Holland is declared. It is dangerous for Holmes to secure a commission in the English army because the name of General Holmes, father of the colonel, is on the warrant for the execution of the late king.

The dreaded plague is spreading rapidly in London. A friend of the colonel, named Tucker, is arrested for plotting against the government. Because Holmes has been seen in Tucker's company a warrant is also out for his arrest.

His Grace of Buckingham rents a house in Knight Ryder Street and plans to have Sylvia Farquharson, actress, abducted and carried there. The Duke's friend, Mr. Eberedge, warns Buckingham that he is doing something dangerous. The Duke refuses to be advised.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
Heaving away, and went to find himself petulantly into a chair, taking his blind head in his fine jeweled hands.

After that explosion Mr. Eberedge decided that there was nothing to be done with such a man but abandon him to his fate. He said so with engaging candor and took his leave.

His grace made no attempt to detain him, and for some time after his departure sat there alone in that somber book-lined room, a fowl expression in wisdom and learning.

Father as much as anyone needs SCOTT'S EMULSION

He was disturbed at last by the appearance of a footman, who brought the announcement that a Colonel Holmes was demanding insistently to see his grace.

Irritated, Buckingham was about to pronounce dismissal.

"Say that," he checked. He remembered the letter received three days ago, and its urgent appeal. That spoke an idea, and set his grace speculating. "Wait!" He insisted. His lips and his eyes narrowed in thought. Slowly they lighted from their gloom. Abruptly he rose. "Bring him in," he said.

Holmes came, erect and soldierly of figure, still tolerably dressed, but very haggard now of countenance.

"Your grace will forgive, I trust, my importunity," he excused himself, faltering a little. "But the truth is that my need, which was very urgent when I wrote, has since grown desperate."

Buckingham considered him thoughtfully under his bent brows without directly replying. He dismissed the waiting footman, and offered his visitor a chair. Holmes sat down wearily.

His grace remained standing. His hands looked into the grille of his desk.

"I received your letter," he said in his slow, pleasant voice. "From my silence you may have supposed that you had passed from my mind. That is not so. But you realize, I think, that you are not an easy man to help."

"Less than ever now," said Holmes grimly.

"What's that?" There was a sudden unaccountable quickening of the Duke's glance, almost as if he were caught in a trap.

Holmes told him without preamble. "And as your grace perceives," he ended, "that I am now not only in danger of starving, but of hanging."

out the rendering of that account.

Now at last he stirred. He turned from his visitor, and sauntered slowly away in thought.

"But what an importunity!" he said at last, for a man in your position to have had relations, however slight, with these wretched fifth-monarchy men! It is to put a blotter about your neck."

"You there was no wrong in those relations. Tucker was a noble fellow. He was your grace's friend. He was your grace's friend. He was your grace's friend."

It is true that he tempted me with proposals. I admit it, since then I no longer hurt him. But those proposals I continuously refused."

His grace smiled a little. "Do you imagine that the justices will believe you when you come to tell them that?"

"Imagine that my name is Radical Holmes and that a speculative government would be so kind of any pretext to shield the name of my father's confederate. That is why I describe myself as desperate. I am a man now on the verge of ruin."

"Did you," the Duke repeated him, "say that you have proposed your very own service of disloyalty. And you are now desperate. I am not sure, but I think you are a little bit of a liar."

When first this proposal was made to him, whatever your friendship for Tucker you should have done straight to the justices and had information of the plot."

Your grace says something that I cannot understand. But even if I could, I should have no objection to your service of disloyalty. I was not a man to propose anything."

"I am not a man to propose anything," he said. "I am not a man to propose anything. I am not a man to propose anything."

"I am not a man to propose anything," he said. "I am not a man to propose anything. I am not a man to propose anything."

said they will not believe me."

His grace paused in his pacing, and smiled a little slyly.

"They will not believe your unsupported word. But if some person of eminence and authority were to answer for your good faith, they would hardly dare to doubt the matter would be at an end and there would be no further question of any importunity."

Holmes stared, suddenly hopeful, and yet not daring to yield entirely to his hope.

"Your grace does not mean that you think you would do this for me?"

His grace's smile grew broader, kinder. "But, of course, my friend, if I am to employ you, as I hope I shall, so much would be a necessary preliminary."

"Your grace?" Holmes bounded to his feet. "How to thank you?"

His grace waved him back again to his chair. "I will show you presently, my friend. There are certain conditions I must impose. There is a certain task I shall require of you."

"Your grace should know that you have but to name it."

"Have you ever heard of Sylvia Farquharson?"

Surprised, it was a moment before the Colonel answered him.

"Sylvia Farquharson?" he echoed, musing. "I heard the name. Oh, I have it. That was the lady in the garden when your grace rescued me in Paul's Yard on the day we met. Aye, aye. I heard her named at the time. A baggage of a play actress from the Duke's House, I think. But what has she to do with us?"

"Something, I think—unless the stars are wrong. And the stars never go wrong. They stand immutable and true in a false and fickle world. It is written in them—as I have already told—that we were to meet again, you and I, and be totally concerned in a fateful matter with one other. That other, my friend, is this same Sylvia Farquharson."

He rose, casting off all reserve at last, and his pleasant voice was thickened by the stress of his emotions.

"You behold in me a man exerting vast powers for good and ill. There are in life few things, however great, that I desire without being able to command them. Sylvia Farquharson is one of these things. That is where I require your help."

In his eagerness, the Duke took him literally, never heeding the sarcasm.

"My experience will be there to guide you," said Holmes.

"I'll tell you more precisely how I need you—where you can save me."

And Buckingham proceeded to inform him of the well-equipped house in Knight Hyder street, which he now desired Holmes to take in his own name.

Having taken it, he was to make the girl shelter on the evening of Saturday next, after the last performance at the Duke's House.

"Taking what men you need," the Duke concluded, "it should be easy to waylay and capture her chair as it is being borne home. We will consider that more closely if the service is one that you are disposed to accept."

The Colonel's face was flushed. He felt his gorge rising. At last his anger mastered him, and he heaved himself up to confront the handsome profligate who dared in cold blood to make him this proposal.

"My God!" he growled. "Are you led by your vices like a blind man by his dog?"

The Duke stepped back before the sudden menace of that tone and mien. At once he wrapt himself in a mantle of arrogance.

"I warned you, sir, that I will suffer no heroics: that I will have no man play Boadicea to me. You asked service of me. I have shown you how I can employ you."

"Service?" echoed Holmes, his voice almost choked with anger. "Is this service for a gentleman?"

He paused. The Colonel stared at him round-eyed. At last he spoke in a voice that was cold and level.

"Your grace has hardly said enough."

"Dullard! What more is to be said? Don't you understand that I mean to make an end of this situation?"

"Faith! I think I understand that well enough," Holmes laughed a little. "What I don't understand is my part in this—a doxy business of this kind. Will not your grace be plain?"

"Plain? Why, man, I want her carried off for me."

They sat conning each other in silence now, the Duke's face utterly blank, so that the Duke looked in vain for some sign of how he might be taking this proposal. At last his lips curled in a rather scornful smile, and his voice drawled with a mildly humorous inflection.

"But in such a matter your grace's own vast experience should surely serve you better than could I."

He paused. The Colonel stared at him round-eyed. At last he spoke in a voice that was cold and level.

Health Board Re-Elects Old Officers

City health board in session yesterday afternoon effected an organization for the year by choosing the same efficient staff of officers which has administered its affairs for the past two years and no change was made in salaries.

The officers elected were:

Dr. O. D. Tatje, health commissioner, $2,100 a year.

Dr. T. C. Crawford, city physician, $1,500 a year.

William West, plumbing inspector and sanitary officer, $2,400 a year.

Dr. W. A. Quinn, bacteriologist, $2,000 a year.

John W. Bernat, clerk, $600 a year.

John W. Bernat and Clerk Bernat were re-elected without opposition, while there was but feeble contest for the other two places, the board running a dead heat in the plan of Mayor Ralph Calvert for recognition by refusing to name his candidates. Charles Statum for plumbing inspector and Dr. Adolph Quanser for city physician. The balloting was secret and resulted in the election of Dr. Crawford over Dr. Quanser by a vote of 4 to 1, and West won over his opponent, Statum, by the same score. The entire membership was present, including J. A. Hinger, J. J. Orlett, Dr. J. W. Jordan, Walter Applegate and C. W. Brierley.

Clerk Bernat read communications from the Plumbers' Union, Central Labor Council and Carpenters' Local urging the election of Mr. Statum, and presiding the balloting. Mayor Calvert, who presided over the meeting, read a statement, in which he urged West and Crawford with political activity and urged the appointment of the two candidates he presented, although in the same breath expressed a desire not to inject politics into the matter.

The mayor's statement in full follows:

"To the Members of the Board of Health, Portsmouth, Ohio:

Gentlemen:

I want to make my position clear to you with reference to the application received for City Physician and Plumbing Inspector, realizing that the Board of Health is vested with authority to make any appointments it so desires, I merely suggested that I had several applications which would like to be considered for these positions and I believe that I was justified in behalf of my party and the various united organizations who endorsed one of the applicants for the position of Plumbing Inspector, and they are expecting some recognition from the Board of Health.

Mr. West whom I have always regarded very highly is a politician and it is a well known fact that he has always displayed an active part in politics. Mr. Crawford, the present City Physician has made a very creditable showing in this capacity. I understand he also has been quite active in politics.

I want your honorable board to hear in mind that it is not my desire to inject politics into such activities where the health of the city would be jeopardized.

In conclusion, I wish to say whether that you act favorably or not, it will be my duty as president of this board to work along in harmony in order that the best interests of the health department will be maintained.

Respectfully submitted,

RALPH CALVERT,
Mayor of City of Portsmouth,
President of the Board of Health.

Mr. West thanked the board after his re-election and declared himself willing to work "in harmony and cooperation with this administration, as I did with the last administration."

The report of Plumbing Inspector West for the month of February showed collections amounting to $181.50.

Dr. Crawford, city physician, reported 150 visits, 30 office visits, and twenty vaccinations.

Dr. O. D. Tatje, health commissioner, reported the following notifiable diseases for the month:

Diphtheria 2; typhoid fever 1; measles 1; venereal 1.

Four hundred and twenty certificates for children to return to school were issued during the month, and twenty-six age and schooling certificate examinations were made.

Dr. W. A. Quinn reported fifteen cultures received during the month, and 22 slides made.

The following annual report to council was approved:

Herrin Grand Jury Meet Under Guard

REURUN, ILL., March 4.—By the A. P.—Steel helmeted troops stood guard at the court house today while Judge E. N. Bowen, of the Herrin city court, swore in a special grand jury called to investigate the uprising here a month ago that culminated in the killing of a constable and the seizure of a hospital.

The judge directed the jury to "find the master mind that planned this uprising." He told them that the "reign of terror in this town must cease, the smoking pistol and the saved off shotgun must not be law and order."

Twelve witnesses to the latest Herrin outbreak were heard. They told of the attack on the J. T. Beck hospital after rioters had been refused admission to take John Layman, a wounded deputy sheriff who had been carried there for treatment.

Take Shamrocks!

Auto-intoxication, (self-poisoning), that's the word. Some think there is no such animal—but there is. If you are suffering from Constipation—then you are a victim of auto-intoxication. You should heed the warning of disease, which demands immediate action. Shamrocks are effective in counteracting this poison which is undermining your health. Try one tonight and watch yourself improve. 25c at druggists, etc. from the Shamrock Remedies Co., Manchester, O.

Dull Spotted Teeth Bleached White Quick—Safe Way

"The whitened dull, yellowish, stained teeth all you need now do is brush teeth with a few drops of a mild, harmless liquid, then use a special paste—and watch stains disappear. This new method is called Bleachodont Combination. The liquid softens the stains—the paste not only gently removes them, but prevents formation of new stains. Plus for removal of green stains from children's teeth. No effect on enamel—its mild ingredients are intended to act only on surface stains. Bleachodont Combination is the formula of a group of prominent dentists who used Bleachodont on their own teeth for four years with highly beneficial results before offering it to the public. Millions of teeth have been whitened this way. For the sake of your teeth, and to avoid disappointment, always insist on Bleachodont Combination, the SAFE treatment, and avoid cheap liquid imitations which may do serious damage. ## How Pains in Side and Dragging Down Feelings Were Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Massena, New York.—"I had terrible pains in both my sides and a dragging-down feeling that affected me so that I could hardly walk, and I got run-down. A friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advised me to try it and I have taken it with the best results. I do my housework and also some outdoor work on the farm. The Vegetable Compound has given me back my health and I cannot praise it enough. I am perfectly willing that you should use these facts if my letter will help other women who still suffer."—Mrs. DELBERT BUSH, R. F. D. 1, Massena, N.Y.

The spirit of helpfulness shown in the letters we are constantly publishing is worthy of notice.

These women know by experience what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do. Your troubles are the same as theirs.

If you have pains and a dragging-down feeling and are nervous and irritable, profit by Mrs. Bush's experience and give the Compound a trial.

Two Prohibition Agents Murdered

STERNVILLE, O., March 4.—(By The A. P.)—Two prohibition agents were wounded, one probably fatally, in a pistol battle here late yesterday.

Thomas Christmas, 31, is in a critical condition, hospital physicians said. J. B. Deon, 35, was less seriously hurt. They were employed by a detective agency here which represents a so-called "Kangaroo" court at Smithfield.

James Deon, another agent, who accompanied them, escaped injury.

The officers say they were fired upon during an argument with Mrs. Rudich

Chicago in Lead

CHICAGO, March 4.—Defeat of two of the leaders in the Western Conference basketball race last night, Purdue by Iowa, and Ohio State by Wisconsin, put Chicago once more into first place, elevated Wisconsin to second and dropped Purdue to third. Ohio State and Indiana now are tied for fourth.

Purdue which was tied with Chicago for first place before tonight's defeat, has one more game, being scheduled to meet Chicago Thursday night. Chicago has two more contests scheduled, Purdue and Wisconsin, while Wisconsin has three more games to play, two games with Iowa in addition to the Chicago contest. Indiana and Ohio State both finished their seasons tonight.

Should Chicago win both its remaining games Wisconsin could win the championship by taking both of its games with Iowa.

Michigan's defeat tonight by Indiana dropped that school to seventh place, leaving Illinois in sixth.

One On Father

John was doing penance in the corner. Presently he said, "I can't help it if I'm not perfect, for there's only been one perfect boy."

"Who was that?" his father asked, hoping to point a moral.

"You," was the flippant reply, "when you were little."

CANNED FOODS TO THE RESCUE

The supply of fresh fruits and vegetables, to say nothing of meats, which goes to our six leading cities each year would require a train of 170,000 cars. The locomotive would be in New York and the caboose in Chicago. If then, there would be any strike or catastrophe and this great supply train were stopped one week or one month or six months, and if even only one of these large cities were isolated, what would happen? How would the people subsist?

Canned foods! That was the answer given today by the National Canned Foods Week Committee. It is a fact that the average large city, if communication were cut off, is only a matter of days from starvation. It is also a fact that when any crisis is impending, such as a country-wide railroad strike, the first thing of which a surver is made is canned foods. How much is there on hand and what is it? Thus by procuring something like a billion cans of food a year, the canner proves himself one of the most essential factors in the country's subsistence and welfare. In time of emergency he has time and time again proved himself the saving factor.

And in other emergencies! On the transcontinental railroad trains are snowed in for weeks at a time. At sea, ships are knocked about, buffeted off their courses, and are weeks and months overdue. Do the people starve to death? Certainly not. Why not? Canned foods! Winter comes. Do we go back to the old time diet of salt pork and potatoes? Do we cease to get corn, peas, tomatoes, and luscious peaches, strawberries, and other seasonal delicacies? Why, no. Let the wind howl, let the thermometer drop—our shelves are laden with the above mentioned luxuries—canned!

Roofing Material Explodes

Explosion of a barrel of asphalt roofing material in the rear of the new Marting building, rocked the downtown district struck terror to a large number of persons who heard the loud report, shortly after four o'clock Monday afternoon. Clouds of black smoke issued from the building following the explosion caused by burning tar but the fire equipment from two stations were soon on the scene and quickly suppressed the flames. The damage was slight.

A huge heater, used for melting the material overflowed, it is said, causing an intense heat to radiate towards

A sealed keg of asphaltum used as a priming coat. According to W. J. Culham, whose company was completing the work of roofing the building at the time this priming coat contains a flux which made it especially apt to explode under the circumstances, and a loud report was occasioned when the material burst its container and shot high in the air. This combination with the overflowing and burning tar, occasioned a hot blaze which was extinguished in but a few minutes, however, by firemen from Seventh and Gallia street stations.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Callie Pennywitt Walden (Huntington Herald-Dispatch)
Mrs. Pennywitt Walden, 80 years old, pioneer resident of Huntington, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. P. Hayslip, 1949 Tenth avenue, yesterday afternoon.

Funeral services will be held at the home of her daughter this morning at 10 o'clock. G. D. Smith, pastor of the South Avenue Methodist church will conduct the services. The body will then be shipped to Manchester, Ohio, and interment will be made at the Odd Fellows cemetery, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Walden was well known in Huntington, having resided here for many years. She was a member of the seventh Avenue Methodist Episcopal church and was an active member in church affairs.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. N. P. Hayslip, of Huntington, W. Va.; two grandchildren, Raymond and Ronald Pennywitt, of Huntington, four brothers, James Pennywitt, of Manchester, O., William, Edward and Herman Pennywitt all three of Portsmouth, and one sister, residing at Manchester, Ohio.

Coriell Funeral
Funeral services for Herbert L. Coriell, who died Monday at the home of his son, Charles Coriell, will be held from the home 1314 McConnell avenue Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock with Rev. Gerald Culbertson of the First Christian church in charge. Burial will be in Wheelersburg cemetery.

Funeral Services Tonight
Rev. C. E. Severinghaus, pastor of Franklin Avenue M. E. church will be in charge of the last rites to be held this evening at 7 o'clock for George W. Walker at the home of his son, Frank Walker, 1208 Young street. The remains will be taken to Ashland, Ky., early Wednesday for burial.

Mrs. Vesta Leila Fannin
Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Vesta Leila Fannin, who died at her home in Fullerton Sunday morning at eight o'clock.

Mrs. Fannin had been ailing for some time but her condition grew suddenly worse last week following a birth. She was the beloved wife of Walter J. Fannin. The family moved to Fullerton about a year ago from Elliott county, Ky. She was 37 years and 8 months old. Surviving are the husband and eight children, three of them grown. She also leaves two brothers, C. H. Fields of Dayton and H. C. Fields of Hardin, Ky. Her mother, Mrs. Helen Fields, died at Fullerton in January. Burial this afternoon was in Gaudin cemetery east of Fullerton.

Pauline Pearl James
Pauline Pearl James, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar James, 1305, Mabert Road, died at 11:30 Monday night of complications. Besides her parents she is survived by three sisters: Clara, Helen and Myrtle, and three brothers: Charles, Floyd and Woodrow. Three other brothers, Harry, Martin and William preceded her in death.

The funeral will be held from the late home, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. H. Stewart Ellis, pastor of the First Baptist church officiating.

Funeral of Mrs. James Stout

The funeral of Mrs. James Stout (Gertrude Moore) who died at her home on the Sham Rock Farm near Rome, will be held tomorrow morning at ten o'clock from the M. E. church at Sandy Springs, Adams county with Rev. Charles Frye in charge. Interment will take place in the Sandy Springs cemetery. Mrs. Stout passed away Sunday evening after a three weeks illness with pneumonia. She is survived by her husband and seven children. She also leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Moore, two brothers, Roy and Charles and sister, Mrs. Otto Cooper.

James K. Thomas

Taps sounded for another Civil War veteran this morning at 10 o'clock in Hempstead hospital, when James K. Thomas answered the roll call after a week's illness.

He suffered an attack of acute indigestion, followed by a fall in his home and was taken to the hospital, where a special nurse was in constant attendance until the end came.

Mr. Thomas was 77 years old on December 7. His wife died three years ago at their home, 421 Third street. Mr. Thomas was a highly regarded citizen of the West End, where he had lived for forty-five years. The family for many years resided on Fourth street below Market.

Mr. Thomas leaves a son, Floyd Thomas, and a daughter, Rachel, at home.

The last rites will be conducted from the home, 545 Front street, at 2 p. m. Thursday and will be in charge of Rev. J. E. Dierck of Oak Hill.

Amick Again Faces An Assault Charge

A lively clash between H. G. Amick, a special prohibition officer, and I. M. Sargent, Scioto Valley young man, interfered with a funeral procession at Tenth and Lincoln streets yesterday afternoon, later resulted in the arrest of both combatants. Sargent on a charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct while Amick is charged with assault and battery in a complaint filed by Sargent.

When the cases were called for trial in Municipal court Sargent pleaded not guilty but Amick was not present and by consent of all concerned the hearing was continued until Wednesday by Judge Sprague in order to give both sides an opportunity to bring their witnesses into court.

The trouble occurred, it is claimed, when Amick attempted to arrest Sargent for alleged halting the funeral procession and in the personal encounter which followed, the officer is alleged to have struck Sargent with a blackjack. According to spectators Sargent after being struck turned on Amick and was pummeling the officer when others interfered and separated the men.

Amick claims that Sargent became unruly and precipitated the trouble by using bad language and making ugly remarks about robed members of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, who were in the funeral procession. He says that Sargent started the fight when taken to task for his unseemly misconduct. The officer denies using his blackjack and declares that Sargent's head was cut when he was knocked to the street.

Sargent asserts that he was struck by some object in Amick's hand and claims that he was assaulted without cause or provocation.

The official investigation, police say, indicate that Amick used his blackjack in conquering Sargent, who was later brought to the police station by Sergeant Charles Ziegler.

When Officer Ziegler attempted to arrest Sargent he refused to accompany him until he learned that Ziegler was an officer.

"If you are an officer I'll go anywhere with you," Sargent said and he accompanied Ziegler to the police station.

Officer Ziegler says that Amick accused Sargent of being drunk and this also caused the trouble. Amick saying Sargent while he was walking along the street.

Amick was found guilty and fined by Judge Sprague in Municipal court less than a week ago for assaulting Charles Hanson, West End young man. The court made a finding in that case that Amick exceeded his authority.

Destruction of Brewery Equipment

Ordered By Chicago Federal Court

CHICAGO, March 4.—(By the Associated Press)—United States District Attorney Edwin A. Olson today delivered to Marshal Robert Levy a court order for the destruction of the equipment, machinery and plant of the Elgin and Beverage Company. The plant is valued at more than $200,000.

Similar orders against fourteen other breweries in northern Illinois now closed by injunction will be sought, Mr. Olson announced.

"It has become apparent that the only way to make beer outlaws respect civilized government is to jail them and destroy their equipment with axe and torch in full view of an outraged public," Mr. Olson said.

The Elgin order calls also for the immediate destruction of more than thirty-eight hundred barrels of beer.

Lawrence Crowley and Richard Barrell, owners of the brewery, already have paid fines aggregating $25,000 and must pay approximately $75,000 more in tax penalties. In addition each is under sentence to serve six months in the Chicago House of Correction. Their terms will begin next Monday.

Deputies from the marshal's office left this morning for Elgin to carry out the order. They will use pick axes and saws to destroy the brewery equipment. The buildings will not be razed, but the entire brewery plant and equipment will be ruined.

Goes To Cincinnati

William Fox, representative of the Hoover Electric Sweeper Co. in this district, with headquarters at Anderson Bros. Co. for the past two years, will leave tomorrow for Cincinnati, where he will be stationed either at McAlpin's or Ames & Decker's in the future. Mr. Fox, by his genial and courteous manner has made scores of warm friends while in Portsmouth, who will be sorry to see him leave, but will wish him success in his new field, which is in the nature of a fine promotion.

Held To Grand Jury

John Cockerell, colored, of Ironton, was held to the grand jury without bail, when arraigned Monday before Squire Burke of that city. Cockerell is charged with shooting Theo. Canaway twice, one bullet severing the jugular vein. Canaway lived on the Newcastle Road just west of Ironton. The shooting climaxed an all night drinking bout in Lou Williams' poolroom on Eighth street, Ironton.

Berlenbach Looks Like Coming Champ, Touches Charged Wire; Hearing Restored

NEW YORK, March 4.—Paul Berlenbach, New York's middleweight knockout king, and reigning sensation of the indoor fistie season, has had one of the most remarkable careers on record. Thrust into the limelight with a record of twenty-three consecutive knockouts in amateur and professional ranks, critics predicted that he is only on the threshold of a great ring career and hail him as a second Stanley Ketchel, a terror in middleweight ranks fifteen years and more ago.

Berlenbach was born a deaf mute and an amazing story is told of how at the age of eighteen, he suddenly acquired hearing and speech. Five years ago, while serving as an instructor in a Westchester County institution for deaf mutes, Berlenbach one day went to the aid of a youth whose kite became entangled in an electric wire twelve feet from the ground. Clinging a pole, Berlenbach released the kite, but in so doing, came in contact with the heavily charged wire. He fell to the ground unconscious and those who came to his aid believed him dead.

First aid, however, revived him and to his astonishment, he found his sense of hearing normal. Medical interest was attracted and subsequent treatment also developed his speech.

Berlenbach's rise to pugilistic fame within less than a year has been spectacular and all the more remarkable because he is one of the few former wrestlers to acquire fistie powers. He won the Olympic middleweight wrestling championship at Antwerp in 1920.

Thursday evening in the Franklin Avenue Church gym the last of his former wrestling opponents, the Holy Redeemer, Wilkens, 21 to 22. The score was tied until the last two minutes when Berlenbach made a dash from the side lines. Saturday night in the Manly gym Franklin plays the Manly Selects. The lineup:
